

Students are asked to understand, commit, and adhere to this Technology Responsible Use Policy. Please read and sign below.

- I will NOT use technology to take or post online any image, recording or video of any student or teacher without their knowledge or consent.
- I will NOT share my password with others or ask others to share their passwords.
- I will NOT use technology to harass others, or to store offensive or inappropriate materials.
- I will NEVER give information about myself, my family, school, or other students over the internet. This includes full names, photographs, addresses, phone numbers, the name and location of the school, where parents work, etc. As a student of CBUA, social media postings that hinder, slander, or otherwise put teachers, students, or CBUA in negative light constitute a violation of this policy.
- If I accidentally view something inappropriate, I will tell my teacher immediately so that he/she will be able to prevent it in the future.
- If my teachers direct me to stop an activity or close a website, program, or ask to retain personal technology, I will comply immediately. I will respect the rules and policies of CBUA.
- I will NOT copy or download work and call it my own. I will always give proper credit to the author for words or images I include in my work.
- I will NOT do anything to damage any computer, monitor, keyboard, printer, wiring, software etc. I will respect the equipment and resources and will be responsible for replacing damaged equipment.
- I understand that all student work stored on school equipment and in Teams or other apps belongs to the school and may be accessed by school personnel.
- I understand that these rules apply not just to my use of CBUA resources, but also to use of my personal technology, including laptops, USB drives, and mobile phones.
I will work to respect and honor the Lord Jesus Christ.
- Violations of these policies will result in suspension and/or expulsion.
- I will act in a way that glorifies Christ when I am online, working on the computer, or phone. My attitude affects my behavior I will ask myself, "What would Jesus want me to do?" I have discussed the CBUA Technology Responsible Use Policy with my parents and I agree to follow the rules and expectations listed here.
